SAYS BILL WILL END AUTONOMY OF 8 GRANT-IN-AID UNIVERSITIES

Cong terms common varsities Bill an 'organised conspiracy'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE AHMEDABAD, AUGUST 7

IN A FRESH ATTACK on the ruling BJP, Congress on Monday claimed the "Common Universities Bill 2023" — set to be introduced by the state government in the upcoming monsoon session of the Gujarat Assembly — will end the financial and administrative autonomy of eight grant-in-aid universities in the state. It will also usurp the huge bank-owned land from the institutions, the party added.

Amrit Chavda, Congress leader in Gujarat Assembly, also claimed the proposed Bill is meant to monetise the huge land parcels in the heart of urban areas with the universities across Gujarat. "We all know that the old universities in Gujarat are located in prominent spots in urban areas. These universities have huge large parcels which are worth more than Rs 50,000 crore. The BJP government has its eyes set on the real estate. It is an organised conspiracy," he said.

leged, adding the land for the varsities was mostly given by kings.

"We want to clearly state that the proposed legislation will end the autonomy of the grant-in-aid universities which used to be a huge support for children from middle and low-income families. This will centralise university education and will end the academic autonomy that these institutions enjoyed for the last several decades," Chavda added.

"For instance, at MS University (in Vadodra), at the time of its establishment, the costs just Rs 8,000 could go up to Rs 2 lakh and this will create difficulties for students from weak economic backgrounds," he said, adding the BJP government in Gujarat will end elected bodies like "senate" and "syndicate" that exist in these universities and the government will end up appointing its own people to proposed "board of management".

Chavda asked people in the state to raise objections against the draft of the proposed Bill which has been kept in the public domain.

Congress leaders who addressed reporters also said the BJP government tried to bring the proposed Bill in 2004, 2007, 2011, and 2015.

"In the last two decades, the Gujarat government opened a number of private universities which neither have land nor the necessary infrastructure. But if these private universities have to be made successful, it is important the government universities are weakened (through the proposed legislation)," said Congress leader Indrajayshin Gohil.

The BJP is yet to react to the claims.

Bilkis Bano case convicts driven by 'bloodthirsty' approach to hunt and kill, Supreme Court told

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA NEW DELHI, AUGUST 7

THE CONVICTS in the Bilkis Bano gang rape case and murder of seven of her family members during the 2002 Gujarat riots chased her with a "bloodthirsty approach" to hunt Muslims and kill them, the Supreme Court was told on Monday. Commencing arguments on the plea challenging the remission granted last year to all the 11 convicts, advocate Shobha Gupta, appearing for Bilkis Bano, submitted she was brutally gang-raped while she was pregnant and her first child was assaulted with a rock to death.

"She kept pleading that she is like a sister to them as she knew all of them. They were from around the area. It was not a spur-of-the-moment incident. The convicts were chasing Bilkis with a bloodthirsty approach to hunt Muslims and kill them. They raised slogans — 'These are Muslims, kill them'. The High Court has taken note that the crime committed by them was rare, uncommon, and driven by communal hatred," Gupta told a bench of Justices BV Nagarathna and Ujjal Bhuyan.

The lawyer told the court the convicts were released on August 15, 2022, following remission of sentence and Bilkis came to know about it when she saw the celebrations outside the jail as they came out.

Opposing the remission granted to the convicts, Gupta said the CBI had opposed the premature release of the convicts saying a wrong message will go out to society at large as the crime is of such a nature that it cannot be pardoned. The hearing will resume Tuesday.

The top court had fixed August 7 for the start of the final hearing on a batch of pleas, challenging the remission granted last year to all the 11 convicts in the case.

On May 9, the top court directed the publication of notices in local newspapers, including in Gujarati and English, against the convicts who could not be served notices.

The top court on May 2 deferred the hearing after some of the counsel for the convicts raised objections about not being served notices on the pleas challenging the remission granted to them.

The Centre and the Gujarat government had told the court they were not filing any plea for a review of the court's March 27 order asking for the production of the original records with regard to the remission granted to the convicts.

The Gujarat government had raised preliminary objections with regard to the petitions filed in the matter other than the one by Bilkis Bano, saying it will have wide ramifications as every now and then third parties will approach courts in criminal cases.

The top court had on April 18 questioned the Gujarat government over the remission granted to the 11 convicts, saying the gravity of the offence should have been considered before showing leniency, and wondered if there was any application of mind.

Termining Bilkis Bano's gang-rape and the murder of her family members a "horrendous" act, the apex court had on March 27 asked the Gujarat government whether uniform standards, as followed in other murder cases, were applied while granting remission to the convicts. Besides Bilkis Bano's petition, several other PILs including one by CPI(M) leader Subhashini Ali, independent journalist Revati Lual, and former vice-chancellor of Lucknow University Roop Rekha Verma have challenged the remission.

Trinamool Congress (TMC) MP Mahua Moitra has also filed a PIL against the remission. Bilkis Bano was 21 years old and five months pregnant when she was gang-raped while fleeing the horror of the communal riots that broke out after the Godhra train-burning incident.

Days after BJP leader Patanwadiya alleges attack, cops begin probe

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE VADODARA, AUGUST 7

A PROBE began Sunday at the Manjalpur police station in Vadodra into the assault of BJP leader Rakesh Patanwadiya, who is also a member of the SC cell of the party in the city. He was allegedly attacked near Novino junction in the Makarpura area at around 10.15 am on August 5.

In his police complaint, Patanwadiya has named two accused — Bharat Tambe and a man named Bunt — who allegedly attacked Patanwadiya when he was to meet a friend.

Patanwadiya told the police that the duo allegedly abused and heckled him. After an initial scuffle, Tambe pulled out a stick and assaulted Patanwadiya, who had to be rushed to a private hospital for treatment, the complaint said.

The incident comes barely two weeks after BJP leader Sachin Thakkar was attacked, according to police, at Race Course Road on July 25 over a previous altercation involving Thakkar's cousin for parking. Thakkar succumbed to his injuries at the hospital a day later.
